FORMER PLANS FOR INCREASED FORCE IN AIR ARE DISCARDED

Present Number of British First-Line Machines to Be Tripled in Two Years—Absolute Parity With France and Germany Will Be Reached and Maintained

LONDON, May 22 (CP).—Previously announced plans to expand the Royal Air Force were put in the shade by the Government's announcement to Parliament today. The domestic air force of first-line machines will be tripled within two years, whereas the first programme called for some increases over five years.

The new plan doubles within two years the number of machines at home that would have been furnished at the end of five years. First-line fighting aircraft at home, instead of being increased to 840 in five years, will be increased to 1,500 by March, 1937. Fifteen hundred planes, absolute parity with Germany and France, is the goal.

GOAL TO BE REACHED
That goal the British Government is determined to reach and maintain, the House of Commons and the House of Lords were told this afternoon by Stanley Baldwin and Lord Londonderry, respective Government spokesmen in the two Houses.

FREE GASOLINE BRINGS A RUSH

Hundreds Tap Mysterious Underground Supply of Fuel at Los Angeles

LOS ANGELES, May 22 (AP).—A huge underground lake of gasoline was discovered in the harbor district near Wilmington today, causing hundreds of persons to stampede to the scene.

Shallow wells, most of them dug to a depth of only two feet, were producing from four to six gallons of gasoline an hour.

The scene, a low area about two blocks square, was dotted with hundreds of gasoline "prospector," some of whom brought hand pumps to speed up production.

FILL THEIR TANKS
Gasoline service stations in the vicinity were deserted as the usual customers backed up their trucks and family automobiles to get their tanks filled.

Chief Ralph Scott, admittedly at a loss to account for the gasoline reservoir beneath the earth's surface, said, however, it was likely it came from a leak many years ago in one of the larger oil company's pipelines leading from a refinery to a harbor terminal.

Inspector Alonso Gile, of the Fire Prevention Bureau, said a gasoline pipeline had broken in the vicinity, spilling thousands of gallons before the leak was discovered.

INTENSE FIRE HAZARD
Chief Scott said the wholesale "drilling" of wells by amateurs in the location created an intense fire hazard, and immediately ordered his men to serve notice they must post $5,000 bonds to drill, as required by state law.

Many persons were digging wells in their front and back yards before the fire officials announced their intention of putting a stop to the practice.

The first "well" was discovered by Citoal Salcido, who dug in the front yard of his Wilmington home and discovered the water he expected to find was in reality gasoline.

MEMBER OF RED CHAMBER PASSES
Hon. F. L. Schaffner, Manitoba Conservative, Dead at Winnipeg—Sixteen Vacancies in Senate

OTTAWA, May 22 (CP).—Leaders of both political parties in the Senate today paid tribute to Senator F. L. Schaffner (Cons., Manitoba), who died earlier in the day at Winnipeg. It was the second time in two days the Upper House expressed its regret at the death of one of its members. The death of Senator Schaffner creates the sixteenth vacancy in the Upper Chamber.

Born in the Maritime Provinces, Senator Schaffner had achieved noted success in the Western Provinces, said Rt. Hon. Arthur Meighen, Senate leader. He expressed his deepest sorrow.

He had been more and more as he had become acquainted with him, Senator Raoul Dandurand, Liberal leader, stated. One of the strongest of party men, Senator Schaffner had mellowed after he entered the Upper House. He had held the most sympathetic feeling for the Manitoba Senator.

NEW ACTUARY IS SELECTED

Hon. Dr. G. M. Weir Discussed Health Insurance, Pensions and Education

M. A. Mackenzie, head of the department of actuarial science of Toronto University, has been engaged by the Province to advise on superannuation scales in connection with municipal pensions, Hon. Dr. G. M. Weir announced yesterday, on return from the East, where he went on departmental matters. The Province will wait for presentation of a new scheme by the municipalities before acting, he stated.

Dr. Weir attended a two-day conference at Ottawa of provincial health officials, under Federal auspices, and came home with the opinion that there will be no direct Federal state health insurance plan at this session.

HEALTH INSURANCE
It was the opinion of the conference, he said, that the Dominion would leave state health insurance to provincial action, assisting possibly by means of grants-in-aid, in research, and along other lines. Formation of a Federal health commission, to inquire into the subject is anticipated. British Columbia, he declared, would go ahead with discussion of a provincial scheme.

While in the East, Dr. Weir visited officials of the Carnegie Corporation of New York, who placed a British Columbia case on adult education before the Foundation. It is unofficially expected that a Canadian committee on adult education will be formed next month by Carnegie interests, and that a November meeting may follow, at which a definite programme may be drawn up.

HOSPITALIZATION
Asked if British Columbia's appeal for direct aid from Ottawa with hospital costs of non-provincial citizens had been taken up at the national capital, Dr. Weir said he had placed facts and figures for such costs before Federal officials, and was awaiting a decision.

Dr. Weir returned yesterday morning, but stayed away from his office in an effort to catch up with other departmental affairs.

Find Victim Of Slide at Taseko Mine

VANCOUVER, May 22 (CP).—Advices received here today stated that the body of C. Christenson, Vancouver, had been recovered from the Taseko-Motherode mine, where seven men were killed in a snow slide last winter. One other body was previously found.

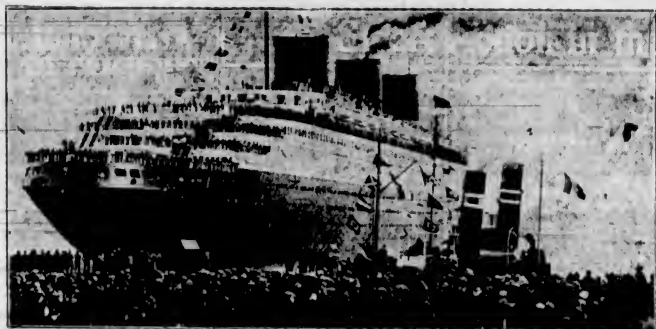

The body was found by Bill Alarie and his brother, trappers, who have been watching the property until the snow melts sufficiently to recover the remains of those killed. Christenson's body was found in the root house. His lower jaw was broken as though struck by a heavy timber. He was unclothed, lending confirmation to the theory that the accident happened in the night, or early morning hours.

Exercised Veto On Five Occasions

OTTAWA, May 22 (CP).—Since 1920, the Dominion Government, on five occasions, has exercised its power of disallowing provincial statutes, under the constitutional powers conferred by the British North America Act. The information was contained in an answer tabled in the House today in answer to a question raised by D. J. Cowan (Conservative, Fort Arthur-Thunder Bay).

Patman Bonus Measure Repassed by U. S. House Over Presidential Veto

Address Seen as Overture Toward Another World Economic Parley

WASHINGTON, May 22 (AP).—A call for closer knit international co-operation to revive foreign trade—interpreted by some an overture toward another world economic parley—today was sounded by Cordell Hull, United States Secretary of State. In an address endorsing the current "foreign trade week," the Secretary of State stressed a number of disruptions he said must be overcome to promote world recovery. The attainment of this goal, he said, "requires an advance on many fronts."

"Today, the whole world stands on the threshold of a great industrial and commercial revival," he said, "if the nations will co-operate in a programme to remove the obstacles that stand in the way, and to rebuild the economic foundations and structures shattered by the depression."

Celebration Has Ambitious List Of Attractions

Tribute to Memory of Queen Victoria Takes Form of Three Days of Festivities, Including Patriotic Ceremonies, Massed Choirs, Parades, Regatta, Carnival, Dances and Sports

VICTORIA'S tribute to the memory of Queen Victoria will commence this morning in the form of a three-day celebration—featuring patriotic, sporting, musical and other events. A programme unequalled for years in variety and number of attractions has been drawn up by the Victoria Day celebration committee. Alderman T. W. Hawkins, chairman, urges all residents to remain in the city and participate in the festivities.

At 10 o'clock this morning uniformed members and standard-bearers of the I.O.E. will place floral emblems at the base of Queen Victoria's statue in Parliament Square during an impressive ceremony to observe Empire Day. Girl Guides, Sea Cadets, School Cadets and school children, conducted by W. H. Muncey, will sing "O Canada," "Land of Our Birth," "O God, Our Help in Ages Past" and "God Save the King."

All afternoon will be devoted to school sports. Spanish children will hold a meet at Beaver Lake at 1:30 o'clock. Equilateral school sports will be held in the Fitzherbert-Bullen Memorial Park at 2 o'clock. Victoria children will hold their events at the Willows Park at 2:15 o'clock.

STREET CARNIVAL
At 7 o'clock in the evening the street carnival on Blanshard Street, between Burdett Avenue and Broughton Street, will be open to the public. Attractions include a ferris wheel, loop-o-plane, Ripley oddities, Mickey Mouse theatre, jungleband, Punch and Judy, a religious play, "The Shadow of the Cross," and many other attractions. Led by a replica of a Tyrannosaurus, Victoria's famous sea serpent.

Roosevelt Plays "Printing Press Money" in Rejecting Huge Soldiers' Bill

SENATE EXPECTED TO SUPPORT PRESIDENT

WASHINGTON, May 22 (AP).—An irrepressible House majority today swiftly repassed the Patman bonus bill over President Roosevelt's veto warnings of "disastrous consequences," only to send the new money plan to an almost certain death in the Senate.

Scarcely had Mr. Roosevelt's voice ceased echoing in the crowded House chamber, where he hammered objection after objection into the $2,000,000,000 bill, than the representatives voted 322 to 98 to override his veto—the first personally delivered in history. It was many more than the two-thirds majority needed.

SENATE DELAYS VOTE
More deliberation, the Senate decided to wait until tomorrow to consider the presidential message which, with the House, it heard "printing press money" as an invitation of "an ultimate reckoning of the State of the Union."

Fighting desperately, but apparently hopelessly, to gain a few votes after Mr. Roosevelt's blunt assertion that full cash payment of the bonus represented "a new straight gratuity."

SOVEREIGN AT CITY RECEPTION

King and Queen Set Precedent by Personal Attendance at Guildhall

LONDON, May 22 (CP).—The King and Queen tonight set a precedent by attending a brilliant civic jubilee reception and ball in the historic fifteenth century Guildhall of the City of London.

Given by the Lord Mayor and the Corporation of London, the ball eclipsed in grandeur the functions for which the city is famous.

There is no record in the archives of the Guildhall of a reigning sovereign and his consort visiting in person a ball given there in their honor. It is ninety-eight years since Queen Victoria, in the year of her coronation, attended the Lord Mayor's banquet—the last occasion on which a reigning sovereign attended an evening function in the Guildhall.

A glittering throng of nearly 2,000 persons had been present for two hours before the King and Queen arrived. They were received by the Lord Mayor, Sir Stephen Kellik, and the Lady Mayores, with colorfully garbed sheriffs in attendance.

Preceding the appearance of the King and Queen, other royal guests were received. These included the Prince of Wales, the Duke and Duchess of York, the Duke of Gloucester, the Princess Royal with her husband, Lord Harewood; Princess Alice and the Earl of Athlone, and the Marquess and Marchioness of Cambridge.

Miners Go On Strike In Belgium

BRUSSELS, May 21 (AP).—Police used tear gas tonight to drive hundreds of strikers from shafts, as 12,000 coal miners struck for higher pay, with 100,000 more likely to join the walkout.

A group of fifteen miners in a Charleroi shaft evaded police, barricaded themselves in and threatened a hunger strike.

Rumors spread in Brussels that Socialist ministers in the new Cabinet might resign because of the situation, but these were not confirmed.

Miners who were driven from the shafts had been there for several days unmolested, but police decided today to drive them from the owners' properties.

SEEKS TO CALL OUT GUARDSMEN

Oregon Governor Considering Request for Troops to Disperse Pickets

PORTLAND, Ore., May 22 (AP).—Judge Donald T. Templeton, of Washington County, tonight, asked Governor Charles H. Martin to call out National Guard troops to disperse union pickets at the Stimpson Lumber Mill at Forest Grove.

Governor Martin, who was in Corvallis tonight, said he would confer with Major-General George A. White, commander of the Oregon National Guard, about the situation. Sheriff John W. Connell, of Washington County, and 100 deputies armed with tear gas and riot clubs had viewed the pickets and then retired to map strategy.

THOUSANDS ARE IDLE
This was the first massing of counter forces in the Pacific Northwest lumber strike, which broke on May 6, and has thrown 40,000 Oregon and Washington lumber workers into idleness.

While the picture at Forest Grove grew more ominous hourly, one hopeful sign in strike settlement was the vote tonight at St. Helens plant of the McCormick Lumber Mill of union workers to return to work tomorrow under a compromise offer granting a 5 per cent boost in wages per hour, and a half for overtime and union recognition.

DIES IN FALL In Shaft at Bradian Mine
GOLDBRIDGE, B.C., May 22 (CP).—W. W. "Bunx" Young, twenty-six, was killed today at Bradian Gold Mine, ten miles west of here, when he slipped and fell into the shaft while doing repair work on the cage.

Operations were being started at the mine, following a three weeks' strike of Bridge River district gold miners.

Young was employed as a mechanic. He is a native of Ashcroft, where his mother resides and where his body is being sent for burial.

Roads Programme Hinges on Federal Loans to Province

Present Plan Is to Spend $1,000,000 on Hard-surfacing by Private Contract, Covering Possibly 222 Miles—Three Millions Sought

BRITISH COLUMBIA is prepared to do $1,000,000 worth of hard surfacing of roads this year by contract, if, as and when a loan can be secured from Ottawa, Hon. F. M. MacPherson said yesterday, prior to leaving today for the Okanagan on interior roads' inspection.

Action, however, is hinged on receipt of the funds from Ottawa. Tenders would be called from private contractors for the work in various parts of the Province, Mr. MacPherson stated.

The remaining $2,000,000, if the full loan is granted by the Federal Government, will be spent on road improvement other than surfacing. In addition, there is a normal road vote of $1,400,000, which is earmarked for maintenance, the minister said.

THREE HURT AT GRADE CROSSING
Backing Freight Train Rolls Car Over Near Indian Reserve at Nanaimo

NANAIMO, May 22—Phillip Piper, member of the firm of D. J. Jenkins, Ltd., and two Indian boys, Harold John and Harry Wyse, had narrow escape tonight when the car driven by Mr. Piper was struck by a train near the Indian reserve. The train was backing up a long string of flats when the rear end struck the Piper car, rolling it over and over several times before the engineer could be notified, and the train stopped.

The Indian boys were standing on the running-board of the car and were thrown clear. Wyse escaping with scratches, but the other sustaining pelvic injuries. They were removed to hospital, where it was found Piper had received two broken ribs and a gash at the back of his head. The car is a complete wreck.

Emperor Sends Further Communication to League of Nations Council—Italian Delegate at Geneva Brings Formal Charge Against Ethiopia of Maintaining Slavery and Its Traffic

British War Office Denies Concentration of Troops

GENEVA, May 22 (AP).—Ethiopia tonight warned the League of Nations, now considering her dispute with Italy, that she would yield neither "to Italian intimidation nor Italian violence." Emperor Haile Selassie's latest communication was read to the council at the end of the day's session which saw Ethiopia formally charged with maintaining slavery and the slave traffic.

CIVIC GUESTS COMING HERE

Noted Visitors to Attend Celebration—Parade Secures Thirty-Six Floats

Alderman T. W. Hawkins, chairman of the May 24 celebration committee, yesterday announced that several prominent out-of-town visitors would be in the May 24 parade. Mayor G. G. McGeer, of Vancouver; Lieut.-Governor Victor Myers of the State of Washington; and Mayor J. K. Carson, of Portland, are coming for the celebration.

Specials cars will be provided also for visiting naval officers from the U.S.S. Chelan, Alderman Hawkins stated.

Following a conference with E. M. Whyte, chairman of the parade committee, Alderman Hawkins announced that all floats in the parade will form on Douglas Street, and should proceed to that street by way of Niagara Street, so that the parade can be more readily formed. There are more than thirty-six floats in the parade, exclusive of decorated cars, and other entries.

MARDI GRAS PARADE
Tonight all citizens are asked to refrain from going on to the C.P.R. wharf while "Caddy" is being brought out of the harbor for the Mardi gras parade. If people insist on going on to the wharf, the parade committee will be unable to perform this particular spectacle, which promises to be an entertaining one, Alderman Hawkins said.

Acting-Mayor Percy R. Brown yesterday made an appeal to all citizens to decorate their office buildings and homes in honor of Empire Day. Every effort should be made, he said, to have the city in festive garb for the occasion.

REFUSE TO GO BACK TO CAMP
Relief Strikers in Vancouver Vote Against Proposals of Mayor McGeer

VANCOUVER, May 22 (CP).—Relief workers in Vancouver at a mass meeting today voted against Mayor G. G. McGeer's proposals that they return to the camps and leave a delegation here to press for recognition of their demands for changed camp conditions and administration.

The men were reported unanimous in their decision to remain in Vancouver. Approximately 2,000 workers have been here since they left camps throughout British Columbia on April 4. They have lived on funds raised solely by private subscription, with the exception of two days' relief granted them by the city last week-end.

STANDING PAT
Meanwhile, the British Columbia Government and the city of Vancouver maintained their stand that responsibility for the men rests on the Dominion Government. Prime Minister R. B. Bennett has disclaimed this responsibility.

A deputation of four strikers waited on the mayor prior to the meeting and asked that they be granted relief while the men are discussing the situation. They told the mayor they thought it would take at least two days to decide on the strikers' next move.

Mr. McGeer refused to grant them relief.

TO EFFECT BUDGETARY ECONOMIES

France Battling to Defend Gold-Backed Currency Against Devaluation

PREMIER PREPARES SIX-POINT PROPOSAL

(Copyright, 1935, by the Associated Press)
PARIS, May 22.—A six-point programme to defend France's gold-backed currency against devaluation was studied by the Government today, as it prepared to ask Parliament for extraordinary powers to effect budgetary economies.

With the dollar hovering stubbornly near the gold export point, gold flowing out steadily to the United States from the Bank of France's reserves and devaluationists increasingly active, Premier Pierre-Etienne Flandin and his advisers were understood to be considering these measures:

1. A huge internal loan to consolidate the public debt.
2. Temporary suspension of amortization payments on the debt.
3. Suppression of social insurance premiums for the time being.
4. Transfer of the Government's contribution to social insurance to the guarantee fund.
5. Setting war veterans' pension age five years forward.
6. Transfer of war pensions amounting to 2,000,000,000 francs (about $320,000,000) to special funds.

FACING BIG DEFICIT
An estimated budget deficit of 6,000,000,000 francs (about $960,000,000) for 1935 faces the administration, this in addition to the railways deficit estimated at 4,000,000,000 francs (about $254,000,000), and extraordinary powers would enable the Government to order economies by decree without fear of parliamentary interference.

TO RESTART DISCUSSIONS

Further Debate of Peace Proposals Said to Be Hitler's Object

BERLIN, May 22 (AP).—A primary purpose in Reichsfuehrer Adolf Hitler's speech before the Reichstag last night, men who helped shape his arguments said today, was to set European peace discussions going anew.

Part V of the Versailles Treaty, that limiting Germany's armaments, now has been crossed definitely off the books, Hitler was described as believing, and the League of Nations, which censured Germany for violating it in rearmings, adequately answered.

MAY PROVIDE BASIS
Having made it plain that Germany will continue rearmings regardless of League or other criticism, Hitler was said to feel his "thirteen points" enunciated before the cheering legislators may provide the basis for new action.

Those thirteen points included rejection of the Geneva resolution, assertion that Germany would respect the rest of Versailles Treaty, "including the territorial clauses," sign no treaty "the demands of which are not fully and completely fillable," participate in collective security; conclude non-aggression pacts with neighbor states; sign an armistice convention; "restriction of unrestricted armistice," "agree to every limitation leading to abandonment of the heaviest weapons," and accept any international agreement prohibiting interference in affairs of other states.

SAW NO INCONGRUITY
The Fuehrer's repeated references to Germany's desire for peace did not seem incongruous to German commentators, even though diplomats pointed out it followed shortly after announcement of the new conscription law creating Germany's largest peace-time army in history.

German embassies and legations in the fourteen countries now represented on the League Council were instructed today to hand the Governments to which they are accredited the full text of Hitler's speech. The German Government considers thereby it has replied to the council resolution concerning rearmament.

Cathedral Men's Guild Will Meet

The Men's Guild of Christ Church Cathedral will meet in the Memorial Hall this evening at 8 o'clock, when there will be set before those present the story of a praiseworthy enterprise in self-help on the part of a number of the local unemployed, under the title, "An Experiment in Co-operation."

The meeting is open to any men attracted by the pioneer spirit and it is hoped that there will be a large attendance. It may be stated that a similar plan is being tried in Melbourne, with the idea of building up the ranks of the unemployed a self-supporting community, to the benefit of the country at large.

Argentina Rejects Offer of Share in World Wheat Trade

Buenos Aires Will Not Accept 20 Per Cent of Export Business—Producing Nations Seeking New Basis for Selling Agreement

LONDON, May 22 (AP).—An offer of 20 per cent of the world's wheat export trade has been made to Argentina by other "Big Four" delegates and already has been flatly rejected by the Buenos Aires Government, it was revealed today by a high authority, as the world wheat conference opened.

The controversial export quota issue was not discussed at today's session, but the offer previously was made privately, it was learned. It appeared certain that Argentina would not consider acceptance of any figure under 30 per cent.

FROM ANOTHER ANGLE
The quota problem, a stumbling block at all previous conferences, now is being attacked from another angle. Instead of considering the problem in the light of millions of bushels, the big four—Canada, the United States, Argentina and Australia—will debate percentages. Preliminary discussions are expected to begin tomorrow, with adjustments of French quotas.

For the crop year ending August 1, France accepted a quota of 1,600,000 bushels, and has served notice that she will not be bound by any restrictions this year. This complicates the French question because the French quota had been contingent upon restrictions of Argentine exports.

NEW FACT IS ISSUE
The main issue before this conference is the question of forming a new wheat pact to replace the 1933 agreement, expiring August 1. Argentina insists that a new basis for export quotas be agreed upon, but she has already indicated her dissatisfaction with the percentage system.

Meetings today in the Board of Trade, with United States Ambassador R. W. Bingham presiding, were devoted to a review of the world wheat situation, and a gloomy picture was painted. The world glut of wheat stocks still will be around 800,000,000 bushels on August 1, reported Andrew Cairns, Canadian secretary of the commission.

Big Increase in Radio Licences Shown in Canada

If a comparison between the number of radio licences issued in the Canadian Government's fiscal year 1934-35, with the total number sold in the 1933-34 period is any indication of the return of prosperity to the country, then it can safely be written that it is at least around the corner.

In 1933-34 there were 707,626 licences issued in Canada, while during the past year the total figures reached 812,335, according to a statement made yesterday by E. J. Haughton, divisional superintendent of the radio branch in British Columbia.

British Columbia was third in the standing of provinces with a total of 70,759, as against 55,978 for the preceding period. Victoria had 19,257 licences issued during 1934-35, and a total of 7,781 in 1933-34.

During the year, 1,931 free licences were issued by the department to blind persons, as against 1,517 for the previous term.

Walking over the downs, Freddie and the girl of heart encountered a ferocious-looking bull and retreated behind a high gate.

Cutter Chelan Is Due in Afternoon For Special Visit

With men and officers ready to take part in Victoria Day festivities here, the United States Coast Guard cutter Chelan is due at Ogden Point Docks at 4 o'clock this afternoon, according to the Victoria Day (1935) celebration committee.

A salute will be fired for the visiting coastguardmen from Work Point Barracks as the vessel nears port. It was originally planned by coast guard headquarters at Seattle, to send three cutters here, but only one could be spared from active service.

CAMP POLICY IS EXPLAINED

Full Details of System Tabled in House in Voluminous Document

OTTAWA, May 22 (CP).—Government policy on relief camps operated by the Department of National Defence gives those employed therein complete freedom of movement, according to a voluminous document tabled today in the House of Commons.

The document covers all regulations issued by the department for administration of these institutions. The purpose of the camps was to provide relief for "homeless, single men," who were otherwise uncared for in other relief schemes.

Accommodation, food, clothing and medical care, and a daily allowance of 20 cents, were furnished, while the men were required to work eight hours a day, with Saturday afternoon, Sundays and statutory holidays observed.

ARE FREE TO LEAVE
"Personnel will be free to leave the camp to accept other employment offered; they may be discharged 'for cause,' and if so discharged will be subsequently ineligible for re-employment under the scheme, except when there is a reasonable probability of the men behaving properly in future," the regulations set forth.

On discharge from camp—except in a case of misconduct, the Government gave free transportation to the men to the point at which they were engaged, the document said. Extension of this policy was that free transportation was also given to men who had obtained employment, the Government paying their fare from the camp to the place at which they were being given a job.

"The standard of rations shall be that as prescribed for the army," continues the regulation. This is, however, the only contact point between the camps and anything relating to the army, for the next regulation set forth:

"No military discipline or training shall be instituted. The status of the individual shall remain civilian in all respects."

Responsibility for the care of the men lay with the officers in charge of the camp. It was their object, the regulations declare, to insure that the men's efficiency—mentally, physically, and at their trades—was so improved that when conditions permitted the men might be returned to the economic life of the country "well able again to take up their usual work."

To assist in this, education and instructional classes were formed, while every encouragement was given for recreation and sport.

Dolly: "How is your son getting on, Mrs. Briggs—the one who was such a clever ventriloquist?"
Mrs. Briggs: "Ea doin' very nicely. Miss: 'e's in a bird shop selling parrots."

AT QUALICUM BEACH
Rev. J. A. Petrie, B.A., of Ashcroft, will succeed Rev. C. E. Finemore at Qualicum Beach. Mr. Finemore will move to Richmond. At Parksville, Rev. E. B. Arrol, B.A., will be succeeded by Rev. Austin G. Gay, B.A., who, for the past several years, has been at Bon Accord, Alberta.

Rev. J. L. Miller, B.A., who has served at Koksilah recently, will move to the Pender Island pastorate.

The appointments were supplemental to those announced from Vancouver on Tuesday, telling of the appointment of Rev. C. G. Boothroyd, of Victoria, to Barkerville, and Rev. E. W. Horton, of Burn's Lake, to First United Church, Victoria.

Fails in Effort To Start Debate On Relief Strike

OTTAWA, May 22 (CP).—Angus MacInnis, Vancouver South Laborite, today failed in the House of Commons to precipitate a debate on the strike situation of his home city. His motion to adjourn the House and discuss the situation as one of "urgent public importance" was declared out of order when the House voted 82 to 67 to sustain the Speaker's ruling. Farmer-Laborites and all the Liberals present, except William Duff, Antigonish-Guyabourough member, voted in favor of the MacInnis motion.

NO CHANGE IN THE OLD SPIRIT

But Most Modern Means of Locomotion Bringing Missionary Head

MONTREAL, May 22 (CP).—Moved by the same spirit as the missionaries of old, but with the most modern means of locomotion at his disposal, Very Rev. Theodore Laboure, superior-general of the Oblate Fathers of Mary Immaculate, is expected in Canada at the beginning of June for the first canonical visit to the order's missions within the Arctic Circle.

At the Montreal headquarters of the order it was revealed that Father Laboure will cross from France on the maiden voyage of the liner Normandie. After spending a few days in Montreal he will proceed to the West and board a plane, which will take him to the far-flung missions of Keewatin, Yukon, Mackenzie, Hudson's Bay, James Bay and Grouard.

FOR ALL SUMMER
The visit to the Mackenzie River valley will occupy all Summer. Father Laboure has set out for Canada from Rome, where the mother house of the Oblates is situated, on three different occasions previously. These trips were undertaken to pay official calls to other communities of the Oblates in Quebec, Manitoba and other provinces.

Father Laboure will be met on arrival at the different Arctic missions by the provincials—the pupils in charge—and taken over the ground the missionaries have covered to spread the gospel in the Northern fastnesses.

Mrs. Simms is also with the team.

Rev. DuBuis S. Morris, D.D., and Mrs. Morris have spent thirty years with the Presbyterian Church in China. They now live in New York, spend their Summers in Ontario, and are actively identified with the Oxford Group. At the present time two members of their family are with the international team of 250 in Denmark. Miss Harriett Latta, of Toronto,

BONUS PASSED OVER PRESIDENTIAL VETO
or bounty to the amount of $1,000,000, the Patman forces already were looking ahead to a new drive for legislation after the final veto ballot.

SEE POSSIBLE COMPROMISE
Roosevelt forces thought they saw a possible compromise loophole in the deadlock between Congress and the White House in Mr. Roosevelt's suggestion that $750 was the outside limit of what now was owed the veterans.

Jutting prominently from the carefully-prepared presidential veto were these words:
"The complete failure of Congress to provide additional taxes for an additional expenditure of this magnitude would in itself and by itself warrant disapproval of this measure."

Financial markets greeted the President's vigorous stand against the Patman bill with quiet caution. Some commentators felt the stress on inflation aspects of the bill might, in the event of further currency agitation, prove disturbing.

GALLERIES CROWDED
Rarely since the war has Washington responded quite so enthusiastically to an unusual occasion as it did to the first personal delivery of a veto message by a president.

The Capitol was overwhelmed by the crowds seeking entry. Despite the limited capacity of the House galleries, most of the officially important managers to squeeze in. Mrs. Roosevelt heard from the first row her husband deliver what he undoubtedly considered one of the most important addresses of his administration.

"I cannot in honesty assert to you that to increase that deficit this year by $2,200,000,000 will in itself bankrupt the United States," the President asserted in his address.

"Today the credit of the United States is safe. But it cannot ultimately be safe if we engage in a policy of yielding to each and all of the groups that are able to enforce upon the Congress claims for special consideration."

ABANDONS PRINCIPLE
"To do so is to abandon the principle of government by and for the American people and to put in its place government by and for political coercion by minorities. We can afford all that we need; but we cannot afford all that we want."

Referring again to the fact that the Patman bill would pay the bonus with new currency, Mr. Roosevelt asserted:
"In the majority of cases, printing press money has not been retired through taxation. Because of increased costs, caused by inflated prices, new issue has followed new issue, ending in the ultimate wiping out of the currency of the afflicted country."

"In a few cases, like our own in the period of the Civil War, the printing of treasury notes to cover an emergency has fortunately not resulted in actual disaster and collapse, but has, nevertheless, caused this nation untold troubles, economic and political, for a whole generation."

B.C. LUMBER FLUCTUATES

Empire Destinations Took 170,000,000 Board Feet in Four Months Past

Britain took 121,027,000 board feet, Australia 36,649,000 board feet, and South Africa 10,687,000 board feet of lumber from British Columbia in the first four months of this year, out of a total of 246,313,000 board feet sent by water between January and April, inclusive, according to provincial reports yesterday.

Waterborne exports for the four-month period were slightly less than in the corresponding period last year, when 285,125,000 board feet were shipped to world destinations. April exports from the province were 64,722,000 board feet, compared with 62,208,000 board feet for April, 1934.

SHIPMENTS VARY
Of 91,000,000 board feet ordered from the Pacific Coast, Japan took 34,685,000 board feet from this province, which was a large increase from 9,121,000 board feet shipped in a like period last year. This was in lumber, exclusive of log exports.

China took 37,191,000 board feet, compared with 48,130,000 board feet last Spring. United Kingdom orders were down by approximately 40,000,000 feet, and Australian orders less by 8,000,000 feet than in similar periods last year. Empire destinations took 170,000,000 feet.

While definite figures cannot be obtained to support the belief, enhanced of Canadian construction enterprises in the East and hope of improvement in the continental market are said to be responsible in part for increased cutting in the woods.

COURT ALLOWS COUNTER-CLAIM

C. E. Straker's Case Disposed of And Start Made in Action by Clifford Foxall

In the Supreme Court yesterday, the trial in Straker vs. Masie & Renwick was concluded with the decision of Mr. Justice Lucas on the question of the counter-claim put forward by the defendants. His Lordship allowed the counter-claim, fixing the amount due at $670. This represented moneys due the defendants when the contract with the plaintiff was cancelled.

The hearing of the counter-claim side of the action occupied a large part of the day, allowing only a short time for the hearing of the case of Clifford Foxall vs. Masie & Renwick. C. L. Harrison appears as counsel for Mr. Foxall, while Alfred Bull, K.C., is counsel for the defendants. The trial was adjourned until next Tuesday.

BATTAGLIA IS RISK VICTIM
PITTSBURGH, May 22 (AP).—Landing pile-driving rights and lefts throughout twelve fast rounds, Eddie "Baby" Risko tonight won a unanimous decision from Frankie Battaglia, Winnipeg's game middleweight contender.

Risko, who hails from Syracuse, N.Y., weighed 161 pounds, Battaglia 157.

The Canadian Italian, favored in the betting, failed to win a single round although several were fought evenly. He never solved the awkward, lumbering style of Risko.

More than 4,000 fans cheered themselves hoarse in Motor Square Garden as the clash turned into a slugfest match which saw both fighters working hard all the way. There were no knockdowns although Battaglia took a one-count in the tenth on a fall in the midst of infighting.

TESTIFIES TO LAWYER
MRS. M. E. ROSE
Mrs. Rose, 30 Academy St., St. Catharines, Ont., now has plenty of pep and barks in a legal statement how Fruit-A-Tives helped give it to her. Mrs. Rose testifies, "For a long time I was bothered with a weak stomach and indigestion. I was also listless and tired. Then I started to use Fruit-A-Tives. They corrected my stomach ailments and toned up my whole system. Now I am healthy and have plenty of pep."

It is easy to understand why Fruit-A-Tives have helped bring health to Mrs. Rose and thousands of others when you realize what they are. A famous Canadian physician discovered Fruit-A-Tives. He combined extracts of apples, oranges, prunes and figs with certain herbs and medicinal ingredients to make Fruit-A-Tives the natural, safe, effective remedy it is. ALL BIDS OVER SPECIFICATION
From $18,000 to $23,000
Asked for Four-Room School at Creston

All bids received by the British Columbia Department of Public Works yesterday for a four-room, stucco school at Creston were above the departmental estimate of $15,928. Tenders were opened by Hon. F. M. McPherson, and must finally be considered by Creston, which is contemplating erection of the building with Government help.

Six tenders were submitted, four being found in order, and two discarded for failure to comply with published requirements of the bids. The lowest tender submitted worked out at the rate of $4.496 per room, and the highest at $5.910 per room, including construction of the building.

TENDERS OPENED
The bids received in order were as follows: A. E. Jones, of Cranbrook, $23,640; Thomas Carson, Vancouver, $19,600; A. S. Hendon, Creston, $18,320; Moncrieff & Vistaneuf, Vancouver, $17,985; E. J. Groulx, of Trail, submitted a bid of $20,136, without a deposit; and A. H. Green, of Nelson, one of $20,973 by wire, these two offers being discarded as not within the terms of tendering.

The bids will be passed to the Department of Education, to take up with Creston school authorities, the minister said.

With such good taste in apparel, this June Bride would naturally select her furniture at the Standard Furniture Co.

BOAT RACES BANNED

Red tape and officialdom stepped in yesterday to prevent a blanket over the proposed inboard and outboard hydroplane races to take place at the Gorge at 1:30 o'clock on May 24.

Capt. George Kirkendall, harbor-master, announced that he could not grant a special permit for the races because of regulations setting the speed limit at six miles per hour between Point Ellice and Gorge bridges. Any infringement carries a penalty of $20.

Officials of the Victoria Day celebration committee last evening telegraphed to Hon. Alfred Durand, Minister of Marine, for special permission. They anticipate that they will be granted today. In any event, they are determined to hold the races.

A few weeks after the international team of the Oxford Group first visited Norway this winter, Frederick Ramm, a journalist who had been in the party, returned to the work of the Oxford Group as a "world-spanning Christian revolution."

It was the head of the Anglican theological college. He stayed on in action with the team until the last moment, thereby making it necessary for him to ride a good part of the night on a freight train in order to fill his Sunday charge.

Edmonton and Calgary responded immediately to the conviction and vision of this national team. The meetings were crowded, and press headlines announced: "Spiritual Change in Canada Coming," "Oxford Group Team Offers Solution to Problems of Canada."

TENDERED LUNCHEON
In Vancouver, the mayor welcomed the men on the team to the city by giving a luncheon, which was attended by more than 100 of the business leaders. Throughout the luncheon, and during the busy days spent in Vancouver, there was the realization of a driving power and an effective answer which was recognized by many in the face of problems of great moment.

The team leaves Seattle this morning, having spent two days in Portland since leaving Vancouver. During the past three weeks this team has seen the tremendous resources of spiritual power in the Canadian people. The members have met a public which is either defensive about its own past, or bitter over what it has lost. Outstanding impression which has been felt is the power of God which is available today in the lives of people who are committed to a plan. Many people have a correct diagnosis of the problems facing us. In many quarters there is conviction that a Power greater than the human will is needed to give us the cure.

This Canadian Oxford Group team comes to Victoria convinced that diagnosis and conviction must be made effective by God-guided action.

THOUSAND ATTRACTED

The team moved West, and at Winnipeg the first house party was held. During the three days spent there, a thousand persons attended the open meetings. At Saskatoon, the team was welcomed by the mayor and the bishop, and the same demonstration of new life which was seen in Winnipeg was experienced.

It was in Saskatoon that one of the business men on the team had the opportunity of making public restitution for the way he had handled a difficult labor dispute some years before. He is quoted by the Saskatoon newspaper as follows: "Regretting his attitude at the time of the Saskatoon Bread Company strike here four years ago, and stating that the shutting down of the plant might have been avoided by him, G. C. Morrison, of Ottawa, until two years ago general manager of the Inter-City Western Baking, represented here by the former Saskatoon Bread Company, told an audience attending the Oxford Group meeting in Third Avenue Church last night, that lack of a Christian spirit had forced closure of the local concern."

Mr. Morrison stated he wished to apologize in a business way to a number of Saskatoon citizens. He said he had declined to take the proper attitude at the time of the strike, which his firm opposed, and as a result considerable money had been lost and ultimately the plant shut down with loss of employment.

Dr. K. Lamb Addresses Sorority

Taking "France" as the subject of his address, Dr. Kaye Lamb, of the Provincial Archives, gave a fascinating talk before a gathering of members and friends of the Alpha Chapter of the Delta Omega Sorority, at the home of Mrs. J. O. Cameron, Moss Street, last night.

Dr. Lamb clearly outlined the various branches of the French University and described the student's life and that of the teachers and their attitude towards the students in class. He told much that was interesting concerning the Sorbonne. There is no alma mater, attached to the institute and any activities are arranged on the student's own initiative. As an illustration Dr. Lamb told of a group formed by the students studying history. For this branch of study

Add cold water and a few drops of mint extract to make a delicate flavor. Chill until it begins to thicken, then beat with the egg-beater until frothy and thick. Pour into a mold and chill until firm and thick. Serve garnished with whipped cream and fresh mint leaves or chopped green candy minis.

The students had marvelous opportunities at the history of France for centuries past was right at hand. The speaker described many of the ancient places to be visited.

RELATES EXPERIENCES

The lecture was of particular interest to the members of the sorority who have just completed a study course on the schools and politics of France.

Miss Grace Goss and Miss Helen Winn delighted the guests with their two-piano duet of Mozart's Sonata. Mr. A. Weatherill sang "Bois Epais" and "Love Me or Not." He was accompanied by Mr. Donald Adams. Miss Louis Patterson, the president, expressed thanks to the speaker and guest artists.

The reception rooms were lovely with huge bowls of sweet rocket and pink tulips. The guests were received by Mrs. Cameron and Miss Patterson. Supper was served in the dining-room. Mrs. Cameron presided at the table, the centerpiece of which was a bowl of yellow tulips. A special guest was Miss Willa McKenzie, of Beta Chapter, at Vancouver, who is visiting here. She brought greetings from the chapter.

C.G.I.T. NOTES

The regular meeting of the Victoria C.G.I.T. Leaders' Council was held at the home of the president, Miss Lillian Parfitt, on Tuesday evening. The meeting was opened by a sing-song, followed by the devotional period, in charge of Mrs. C. G. McKenzie, who took as her theme, "Love for Our Fellow Men."

The business meeting was commenced with the roll call of churches and the reading of the minutes by the secretary. As this was the last meeting of the season, the council felt that it was fitting that their appreciation of the cooperation of the newspaper staff of both The Colonist and The Times should be expressed.

The Girls' Council report was presented by Miss Nellie Cameron in the absence of the sponsor. Miss Beall then presented the report of the camp committee, which was enthusiastically discussed by the leaders. Recommendations were made that only one camp be held this year, instead of two as there were last year. It was decided that Up Island groups should be invited to attend the Victoria district camp, and that a director from the Mainland should be invited to take charge of the camp. The matter of camp leaders was also discussed at length. Miss Olive Lynn, the secretary, presented a report on the facilities for transportation and the approximate cost.

Miss Lillian Parfitt, emphasized to the leaders the importance of senior provincial camp, which is held at Ocean Park and is the corresponding activity in girls' work to Older Boys' Parliament. Following the adjournment of the business meeting, refreshments were served by the president.

SAVE AND BE SAFE WITH LIFE INSURANCE

They Found a Way to SPEED UP THEIR SAVINGS

"We sincerely appreciate the very satisfactory settlement of our $2,000, 20 Year Joint Endowment Policy, just matured. After carrying the risk on both our lives for 20 years, your Company gave us a cheque for $3,021 in settlement of the policy. It certainly proved an excellent investment and an ideal method of speeding up our savings."

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. S.

THE above extract from a recent letter is only one example of how you can "save and be safe with Life Insurance," and speed up your savings.

If you can save money, you are interested in speeding up the effect of your savings; for savings take time, and life is sometimes too short to allow them to reach the proportions planned.

Countless letters in our files show how satisfied policyholders of this Company have solved this problem. Their savings were insured for the full amounts of their policies and "speeded up" to that extent. They made sure that, no matter whether they lived or died, a definite part of their saving programme would be carried out.

Among the many policies issued by the Great-West Life, there is a plan "made to order" for you. Inquire of our nearest branch office, or send your request for information to Head Office direct. (The coupon will bring you, by return mail, our attractive booklet, "Actual Stories from Real Life.")

Democratic London Celebrates Jubilee

The following letter from a correspondent to The Times (London) records an unusual incident in connection with the Jubilee celebration in London:

"One incident out of many that show the national temper at this time should not, in my opinion, go unrecorded, and since I have not reported I venture to send it to you in the hope that you may consider it worthy of your columns."

"On the night of May 6 a private dance was taking place in one of the stately houses of Mayfair. The windows were open to the warm spring weather, and the crowd in the street below took advantage of the music which floated down to them. Very soon communication was established between the windows and the street. The dancers below called up for their tunes that they preferred. Their orders were communicated to the band and promptly executed. But presently it seemed to many in the hall that it would be more agreeable to dance in the open air. The two crowds united, and finally, joining hands, danced in one large ring round the island site on which the house was situated. I saw a private soldier with a detache in satin on either side of him. The senior service was also represented."

"Is there any other country in the world where such a sight could be witnessed? And is it true that the only Jubilee casualty was one Communist who died of a broken heart?"

ROBERT W. CHAMBERS

CHAPTER XVI

The rain fell thickly until midnight, keeping me awake. By lantern-light I dressed, placing my belt in the bosom of my shirt. I left my pack with my landlady, Timothy Boyd.

"There is foul company at the Greathouse Inn," he told me. "Greathouse received four guests an hour ago. Mount bade me wait you, sir."

I understood at once. Butler, Wrasell, Toby Rice and the fourth member of the band had arrived in Greathouse's camp.

"Is Mount sleeping?" I asked. The old man laughed.

"I have never seen him sleep," he said. "He is out yonder somewhere prowling."

"And Shemuel?—and Cade Renard?" I inquired.

"Shemuel is on his way to Pittsburg; Renard mouses with Mount. Is your rifle loaded, sir? This night, too, did Greathouse make nine savages drunk with spirits. Have a care that they cross not your path, young man."

To gain the river, whence the trail ran northward to the Cayuga camp, I was obliged to pass the fort, and consequently the Greathouse Inn. But I had no fear at this hour of morning, and I trotted on along the stump fence until the first curve brought me to Greathouse's Inn.

Shutters were drawn and bolted over every window, but candle-light streamed through the laproom, and I caught odors of cooking, of rum toddy and of tobacco smoke. Clearly Butler's company were supping after their long jog.

Satisfied that all was safe, I had silently begun skirting the road ditch shadowed by the fence, when a dark heap that I had taken for a stump in the road moved and moaned.

I stopped, frozen motionless. After a moment's vain reconnoitering, I crept forward again, eyes fastened on that dim shape ahead.

When I came closer I understood. At my feet, in a drunken stupor, sprawled a young Cayuga girl, limbs plastered with mud, body reeking with a stench of spirits. Her black hair floated in a pool of rain.

I lifted the little thing and bore her to the shadow of the fence; but here—to my amazement, lay a drunken squaw, doubtless her mother, still clinging to an empty bottle, and along the ditch and fence I counted seven more young barbarians, all apparently of the same family and all lying in a sodden swoon.

This was the work, then, done by a single agent of my Lord Dunmore.

They lay there, glistening in the grass, the children naked, the mother in rags, breathing out poison under the stars.

There was nothing I could do for these victims of Greathouse. Heart-sick, I turned away and passed swiftly down the muddy trail.

The Cayuga trail was broad and plain, and I took it at a wolf-trot. And now a thread of blue smoke, drawn far down the trail, set my nostrils wide and quivering; a flare of blinding yellow turned the world into gold. I had met the sun at the raised hand. "Peace, you wise men and sachems!"

"Peace!" repeated a low voice. "Peace, bearer of belts!"

I moved nearer, head high. And when I came to the edge of the fire I drew a white belt of wampum from my bosom, and, passing it through the smoke, held it aloft, flashing in the sun, until every chief and sachem had sunk down into their blankets, forming a half-circle before me.

Belt after belt I passed through the fragrant birchsmoke; I spoke to them as Sir William had spoken to Quider with three belts, and my words were earnest and pitiful, for my heart was full of tenderness for Sir William and for these patient children of his.

The last belt was passed, flashing through the smoke; the chief sachem of the Cayugas rose to receive it, a tall, withered man of the Wolf tribe, painted and draped in scarlet. His dim, wrinkled eyes peered at me through the smoke.

For a long time the silence was broken only by the rustling flames between us; then the old man placed the belt at his feet, straightened up and spoke feebly:

"Brother: It is to be known that the Six Nations never meet in council when mourning until some brother speaks as you have spoken. 'Brother: We mourn great men dead. Our Father, through you, our Elder Brother, has purified our proudly with folded arms and heads erect. And the old sachem laid his shaking hand on each youth as he passed, always turning to peer at me as he repeated in his feeble, cracked voice:

"We acquaint you that one of our sachems, called Quider, is dead; we raise up this boy in his place and give him the same name."

And after each boy had been named from one of the dead Cayugas, he gave me a string of wampum to confirm it, while the solemn chant of condolence rose from the seated chiefs and sachems. Hour after hour I stood with bent head and folded arms. Sometimes I prayed as I stood, that evil be averted from these wards of our King; sometimes I grew hot with anger at the men who could so vilely misuse them.

So I dreamed there amid the scented birch smoke, the chant intoning with the mourning pines, sombre visions took shape within my brain. I saw awful spectres of ruin and death crowding around a flabby creature of silk and lace, my Lord Dunmore, smirking at terror wearing the merciless mask of Butler.

I awoke where I stood, then stumbled back out of the scented smoke. I opened my eyes dizzily. My ears were ringing with the interminable chant:

"Sah-e-ho-na."
"Sah-e-ho-na."

I crossed my arms and waited, careful to keep out of the sweet smoke that had stolen away my senses and set me dreaming of horrors.

The sun hung above the pines, belted by a slender purple cloud, the forerunner of a gathering storm. I watched the cloud growing until it smothered out the sun. And in silence, three chiefs arose and moved towards me through the smoke. One by one they spoke to me, naming themselves: Yellow Hand, Tamarack, the ancient sachem robed in scarlet, and lastly, the war chief, Sowonowane.

No prison building was ever built as the fifteen miles of water between it and Maui were regarded as making it escape proof.

It was Tamarack who continued: "Brother: We have heard. The Three Ensigns of our nation have heard."

(A belt)

"Brother: We all bear patiently this great wrong done us by Colonel Cresap. We are patient because Sir William asks it of us. But under these tall pines around us lie hatchets buried deep among the pine trees' roots. See, brother. Our hands are clean. We have not dug in the earth for hatchets."

(A belt of seven)

"Brother: We pray that our elder cousin, Lord Dunmore, will remove from us this agent Greathouse. We pray that no more spirits be sold to the Cayugas. We pray this because we cannot resist an offered cup. We pray this because we drink and die. It is death to us, death to our children, death to our nation."

(A black belt)

"Brother: Bear our belts to our Father, Sir William Johnson, and to our elder cousin, Lord Dunmore. Intercede with them that they may heed our prayers."

(A bunch of three)

"Brother: Depart in health and honor, bearing these sacred belts of peace."

A frightful scream cut him short; scream after scream arose from the hidden lodges.

The assembly rose in a body, blankets falling to the ground, and stood paralyzed, silent, while the horrid screaming rose to an awful, long-drawn shriek.

Somebody was coming—somebody plodding heavily, shrieking at every step, nearer, nearer—an old woman who staggered out into the circle of the council, dragging the limp body of a young girl.

Plays Two Holes In 113 Strokes; Claims New Mark

SEATTLE, May 22 (CP).—There may not be such a thing as a world's record golf score, but Hester Harley, former most yachting woman of Seattle, claims one, anyhow.

In her first attempt at the game after a series of lessons, she confessed to taking an hour and 113 strokes to play two holes.

"When I got to the third tee and figured up that it would take me 904 more strokes and eight more hours to finish the eighteen, I simply quit right then and there for good," she said.

The bonds of matrimony aren't worth much, either, if the interest isn't kept up.

ing it escape proof. Years later, however, the mysterious disappearance of provisions and valuables from Maui shore homes was attributed to convicts who had made the long swim. In 1847 the island was abandoned.

It was later leased out to private interests who introduced horses, cattle, sheep and goats, hoping to turn it into a ranch. The poor judgment of adding the latter animals caused the stripping of vegetation, death of the horses and cattle, and left Kahoolawe a barren rock with unknown thousands of wild goats roaming its surface, a place where plant life cannot take hold and water cannot be conserved.

Blown into sea. It is said that from four to ten feet deep of top soil has been blown into sea. Little now remains but solid lava rock, and yet Kahoolawe has been declared a United States forest preserve.

There is evidence that Kahoolawe once supported large trees. At one time it must have been a populous area, for ruins of over 800 heaues (temples) are still to be found.

The board of agriculture and forestry thinks the island may be saved and perhaps rehabilitated. Algorba

Slimy suds cause HARD RUBBING

CLOTHES WEAR OUT IN THE TUB!

"I TRIED some of those cheap soap-chips," says Mrs. L. J. Flanagan, "and I want to tell you it didn't pay. I couldn't afford to have my clothes fade and wear out so fast."

Dirt laughs at watery soap

Cheap soap-chips just won't make good suds. And slimy suds won't move dirt! You rub and you RUB. You're tired! And think what this rubbing does to your clothes! Makes thin places that tear easily. Makes woollens shrink.

Besides, poor suds won't carry the dirt away, even after you rub it loose. They get scummy—hard to rinse. Your clothes won't look clear. They won't smell clean.

Danger! Strong bleaching alkalies

And look out for harsh, strong substances used to "cut dirt out" instead of flushing it out with rich, thick suds! No wonder threads break! No wonder colors fade! See how harsh soap reddens your hands. This is a warning. Can you afford to let crude, harsh soap ruin your clothes?

going! going! gone!

Even "tub-fast" patterns grow dim when your clothes get harsh washing each week with cheap soap-chips.

ELLA'S TOWELS ALWAYS SMELL SO QUEER I HATE TO USE THEM

TAKE WARNING from the smell of cheap soap-chips! That strong odor comes from rancid fats and harsh substances. And the trouble is, this crude soap gives poor suds. It won't pick up the dirt and rinse out easily. It leaves a gray look and a stale smell in your clothes. What a difference Chipso makes! Its rich suds get dirt... leave clothes white and sweet-smelling.

CONSIDER THESE 3 POINTS FOR REAL ECONOMY

1 Chipso is SOAPIER... gives wonderful suds for loosening dirt... goes farther.

2 Chipso is made of GRADE A materials... free from lumps, dirt and bad odor.

3 Chipso SAVES CLOTHES—which are far more costly than any soap.

"NO FADING"

"I used a piece of the original material to let out a blue dress for my little girl. The dress had been washed with Chipso for 3 years, but the color still matched the new piece exactly," says Mrs. A. B. King.

"No Hard Rubbing"

You can tell that Chipso is fine, rich soap. It feels rich and silky. It smells sweet as fresh cream. And Chipso suds stay up and work. They loosen dirt like magic. "I threw away my washboard when I began using Chipso," says Mrs. L. E. Frank.

"White Clothes Glisten"

"After I changed to Chipso, I had no more trouble with dingy-looking clothes. Even our last year's clothes still look new. That's a bigger saving than skimping a few cents on soap!" (Mrs. L. J. Flanagan)

HOSPITAL DAY GREAT SUCCESS

Excellent Entertainment
Brings Substantial Aid for Projected Building

TOFINO, May 22—Saturday last was "Hospital Day" at Tofino, when by means of a vaudeville entertainment and dance the funds for the building of the local hospital were augmented to the extent of $125. In addition to everyone in the immediate district attending, a party of twenty-five from Ucluelet and another of twenty-five from Ahousat journeyed here to help swell the numbers attending. The occasion was also given color by the presence in port that night of the lighthouse patrol vessel Malaspina, also many fishing boats, in addition to the local fleet of salmon trollers.

GOOD VAUDEVILLE
Organized by R. E. Brinkman, well-known organizer of amateur theatricals on the West Coast, and who is the donor of the land on which the hospital is to be built, Dr. J. G. Robertson and Mrs. Nicholson, a splendid two and a half hour vaudeville show was staged in the Canadian Legion Memorial Hall. The first half of the programme consisted of individual musical turns and short farces, while the second half of the evening's performance consisted of a comedy.

"From Rags to Riches." One of the star acts in the first half was "The Man on the Flying Trapeze," sung by C. Young, and Dr. Robertson giving a daring exhibition of acrobatics on the trapeze, assisted by a chorus of young beauties and the orchestra. Mrs. George Nicholson and Mr. Brinkman brought the house down in a "two-man" farce, "A Sister To A Sister." "Practical Surgery" was another extremely laugh-producing farce in which "Saw-Bones," portrayed by M. MacLeod, Jr., produced from a patient on the operating table, not only his appendix, but rabbits, live crabs and "what-not." Others in this cast were Miss Jean McLeod and Joe McLeod (the unfortunate patient). "The Radio Broadcast" was also highly amusing, by Mesdames H. Monks and Gretel Arnet.

A topical feature was "The Clayquot Sextuplets," by Mrs. G. Nicholson, Mr. Brinkman and six howling "kids." An accordion and guitar duet by Mrs. Bonnie Arnet and T. Kines was prettily rendered, while Mesdames V. Madden and P. Malon played a well arranged piano duet. Miss Muriel Thompson danced to Irish jig, and Mrs. Hilmer Wingen sang a solo and accompanied most of the turns on the piano. "The Cowboy Orchestra," under the leadership of Mrs. B. Arnet, comprising four accordions, banjo, guitar, mouth organ and Jew's harp, opened the show, while another good turn by the chorus was "There Is a Gas Boat at the Pier."

SUCCESSFUL COMEDY
The comedy, "From Rags to Riches," occupied the entire second half of the evening, the cast being: Mr. Postlewaite, Mrs. H. Monks; Mr. Postlewaite, Mrs. J. G. Robertson.

son; fortune teller, Mr. C. Young; Horace, Mr. M. McLeod, Jr.; geranium, Pearl Ekington; hollyhock, Charlotte Evans; wallflower, Jean McLeod; Mr. Pulpit, Mr. Brinkman; Mrs. Nicholson, Mrs. K. Ekington; Lizzie Parker, Mrs. K. Ekington; Jenkins, Dr. Robertson.

Others taking individual parts in the chorus, etc., were Mrs. Cecil Nicholson, Mesdames O. Hansen and V. Madden.

During the interval an interesting incident took place when eight Indians from the Ojibwa Indian Reserve, headed by Chief Joseph, performed an Indian war dance in full costume, at the conclusion of which Edwin Matthews on behalf of that tribe, made a donation of $10.50, collected among the Indians towards the hospital fund.

After the show everyone went to the Tofino Community Hall, where over 200 people enjoyed one of the biggest and most enjoyable dances held in the settlement for a long time, the members of the Tofino Hospital Ladies' Aid serving a delightful supper. The orchestra from the lighthouse tender Estevan provided the music.

On account of the popularity of amateur theatricals and vaudeville shows staged at Tofino in the past and the limited accommodation of the local hall, the entire show was taken given on Thursday night last, also to a crowded house, and on that occasion the St. Princess Magallana stayed in port overnight, and so enabled the officers and crew and the passengers to see the performance. On this occasion all the children of the district saw the show, to make room for the grown-ups on the Saturday night.

PLANS BEING DRAWN
The committee in charge of the raising of funds now report the fund to be close to the $3,000 mark, and plans for the hospital are being kindly drawn up by architects of the Public Works Department, though the hospital is not to be a Government hospital.

Anyone still wishing to contribute to this much-needed hospital for the fishermen of the West Coast and their families, are invited to send their contribution to Major G. Nicholson, the honorary secretary; to Jacob Arnet, the treasurer, or Dr. J. G. Robertson, the medical superintendent.

The hospital is to be built, owned and operated by the Tofino Hospital Society, a representative body representing every section of the outside West Coast, from Barkley Sound to Kyquoot. Membership cards are being issued at $1 per year, and everyone living on the coast, or interested in the West Coast, is invited to join and so have a direct and personal interest in the hospital.

METER RENTALS ARE UNPOPULAR

Courtenay Residents Protest Against Increased Cost
Of Electric Light

COURTENAY, May 22—Monday night was a night of delegations at the City Hall. The proposed new tax in the form of rentals for electric meters, which has met with very strong opposition both within and without the city, culminated in the presenting of two petitions, each bearing about 140 signatures. Several persons in the city and district, feeling that present conditions and times are such that it would be wiser to reduce rather than increase the cost of living, have already decided to have the light discontinued rather than pay the extra cost.

J. H. Arent presented the petition from outside the city and Mr. Damonte from those in the city. In trying to defend this unpopular step, some of the aldermen thought the tax was a reasonable one on the investment. They intimated that the electric light rates may be reduced at a later date, at which time the twenty cent meter charge would be taken under advisement.

A representative of the Courtenay Fire Department told the council that the department did not like charging $10 per call outside the town. Permission was given the firemen to take the equipment outside the city, but left the responsibility of financing this service to the fire department.

A letter from the secretary of the Courtenay-Comox Board of Trade informed the city council that the board had undertaken to advertise the city and district over a Vancouver radio station to the extent of $100 during the coming season and invited the city council to share in this publicity to the extent of 50 per cent. The council decided to do so. A delegation from the unemployed was informed that there were no funds available, when their request for three extra days of work each month was put forward.

Comox water supply is still unsatisfactory in spite of the tank erected at the top of Biwash Hill. At a further cost of $277, a booster pump is to be installed at the foot of the hill.

Cattle Club Has Annual Field Day

KEATING, May 22—The Saanich Jersey Cattle Club held its annual field day and basket picnic on Sunday. The members took advantage of the opportunity to see some of the noted Jerseys of Saanich. Farms of the following were visited with much interest: W. J. Horland, Royal Oak; H. T. Burbridge, Burbridge Road; Ian Douglas, Mount Newton Crossroad, and G. W. Malcolm, Mount Newton Crossroad. At 1 p.m. lunch was served at the Sidney Experimental Farm, after which Major A. D. Macdonald, East Road; A. W. Ayland, Wain's Crossroad, and C. Mosca, Deep Cove, were also visited.

Miss G. E. Moses served afternoon tea to the visitors.

SENTENCED TO TERMS IN JAIL

Vasheresse and Sloan Must Serve Three Months With Hard Labor

Louis Vasheresse and David M. Sloan were convicted by Judge J. Charles McIntosh in the County Court yesterday of breaking and entering the store of Walter Pedder, 2009 Fernwood Road, and of having stolen—canned goods, etc., therefrom. Their sentences were fixed at three months by the court. The evidence in the case showed that the two men were drinking during the afternoon and evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Vasheresse, having consumed some five bottles of loganberry wine and about sixteen bottles of beer from 4 o'clock in the afternoon until midnight. This was done against the protests of their wives, who objected to the drinking.

PLEADED NOT GUILTY

A plea of not guilty was entered by P. J. Sinnott for Vasheresse, whose trial took place first, with the production of the evidence heard in the police court, together with the defence witnesses, who consisted of Mrs. Vasheresse and Mrs. Sloan, who testified to the fact that the two accused were scarcely able to stand by midnight, but who insisted upon going down, they said, to see a man. Mrs. Sloan thought they were going to get more liquor.

For the other accused, Sloan, a plea of guilty was entered by William T. Straith, who put forward a plea for leniency, owing to the fact that Sloan was a married man, with a family, and that he was so drunk he did not realize what he was doing. He was a returned man and in danger of cancellation of his pension if given over six months in jail.

For the other accused, Mr. Sinnott, took the position that their actions in throwing on the lights in the store in full view of anyone passing while they were taking the goods off the shelves showed that they were not acting in a rational way. They were incapable of criminal intent, owing to their state of intoxication.

ADMITTED GUILT

Mr. Sinnott, in answer to the court, admitted the accused's guilt, but asked in view of the circumstances for leniency.

H. C. Hall, K.C., who appeared for the Crown, did not under the circumstances press for severe punishment.

His Honor said he was affected by the claims of the families of the accused, who were dependent upon them for sustenance. He was not, however, affected by any claim which the accused themselves might put forward. Their crime was a silly one and while they were no doubt drunk, the fact remained that they appeared to have entered the store by taking out a sash in the rear of the place, which showed they knew what they were doing. He, thereupon, sentenced them in turn to three months in jail, with hard labor.

A request to allow the time to begin with the day of their arrest was refused by the court.

A Word to Parents

About the boys and girls

The adolescent age is a most critical time in the life of the growing child. Boys are developing into men; girls into women. Whether the future life is to be healthy and happy or distressed by nervous disorders of body and mind depends largely on the health at this time. Physiological changes are taking place which demand an abundance of rich, red blood. If the body is anaemic and vitality weak, if the nervous system is exhausted by school work, restorative treatment is a necessity. Girls especially need help at this time. Such help as is found in Dr. Chase's Nerve Food. This treatment is gentle and yet powerful in restoring vigor to the blood and nerves. Young bodies respond quickly to this restorative. Color returns to the faded cheeks. And vigor of mind and body is soon evident.

THE CHEMICAL INDUSTRY

WHEN YOU USE SALT ...

DO YOU THINK OF NICKEL ?

PROBABLY NOT. Yet Nickel and Monel Metal play a most important part in the production of salt and in assuring its purity.

Wet salt and brine encountered in almost every operation in a salt refinery rapidly corrode most metals, but they only add a higher polish and give additional lustre to the silvery white surface of Monel Metal. To quote R. K. Warren, superintendent of the Morton Salt Co., "The purity of salt depends largely upon the materials with which the grains come in contact during the processes that intervene between crystallization and final packing. By adopting Monel Metal for the equipment used in these vital stages, manufacturers are ensuring the production of purer, whiter salt."

The salt industry is only one of many chemical industries in which Nickel and Monel Metal serve useful and practical purposes in reducing production costs and in assuring purity of product.

The production of Nickel in such enormous volume from the Canadian Mines at Copper Cliff, Ontario, has been made possible only by the constant search for and discovery of new industrial uses for Nickel, Monel Metal and other Nickel alloys.

This sales effort is unrelenting and is carried on throughout the world in every branch of industry by our Development and Research Division. Bureaus of Information are maintained in foreign countries where technical data as to the uses of Nickel and its alloys in industry are made available to manufacturers. The increasing world-wide demand for Nickel and Monel Metal for industrial purposes, which is reflected in increased exports, is a definite indication of the effectiveness of this activity.

In return for these export shipments of Nickel, a stream of new wealth comes back to Canada, which is distributed throughout the Dominion in payment of wages, supplies, lumber, power and freight. This is a stimulating and stabilizing force in Canadian business.

MUZZ PATRICK WINS CANADIAN FIGHT HONORS

Scores Kayo Over Quebec Champion In Second Round

Victoria Fighter Stages Great Comeback After Being Knocked Down Twice in First Round and Through Ropes to Lift Championship Against Osborne—Garner Kayoed

EDMONTON, May 22 (CP).—Six new champions were crowned as the Dominion boxing championships ended here tonight, only two defending titleholders retaining their honors.

Jackie Callura, of Hamilton, perennial holder of the 118-pound title, successfully defended his championship when he won handily over Emanuel Battaglia, of Winnipeg, by a decision, while Billy Marquart, of Winnipeg, holder of the 126-pound title, beat Wally Cave, of Montreal, by a knockout in the first round to retain the honors he won last year.

Most thrilling of the finals was that in the heavyweight class in which Murray Patrick, son of Lester Patrick, manager of the New York Rangers' hockey club, defeated Tommy Osborne, of Montreal, Quebec champion. Down twice in the first round, and knocked through the ropes once, young Patrick, with a lethal wallop in his right hand, found the range in the second frame, after recuperating marvelously following his rest. Osborne elected to slug it out with Patrick in the second, probably under the impression that the Victoria boy was weakened. In a flurry on the ropes, Patrick finally got home with a right-hand smash that was dynamite-loaded, and when Osborne got up his eyes were glassy.

BATTERS OPPONENT

Osborne ran into another passing flurry of rights and lefts and was crashed to the floor again. Coming up again on rubber legs, Osborne tried to clinch, but the young Victoria scrapper shook him off and battered him down again, when the bout was stopped by the referee. The time was 1:29 in the round.

Other outstanding winners were: Billy Marquart, of Winnipeg, in the featherweight class; Jackie Callura, of Hamilton, in the bantam class; and Robin Carrington, of Calgary, who won a surprising victory over Sammy Luftspring, to take the 135-pound title.

Maurice Camry's win against Gordon Schmalz, of Kitchener, was also something of an upset. (The Winnipegger, mainly because of a fine left hook, had a clear win in the final.

Unloosing a smashing two-fisted attack in the second round after having been outpointed in the first canto, Roger Whitmore, of Regina, won by a knockout over Billy (Kid) Garner, of Victoria, in 1:52 of the second. Whitmore had Garner on the ropes two or three times and finally caught him in the corner to fatten him with a right-hand punch. Whitmore's win gave him the Dominion 147-pound novice title.

Results follow:

126-pound novice final—Webb Prizell, Lacombe, won from Frank Margang, Regina; decision.

147-pound novice final—Roger Whitmore, Regina, won from Billy Garner, Victoria; knockout in 1:52 of second round.

112-pound semi-final—Jack Armstrong, Toronto, won from Alfred Tansey, Edmonton; knockout in 1:51 of first round.

112-pound semi-final—Max Rubin, Montreal, won from James Chapman, Edmonton; decision.

135-pound semi-final—Wally Cave, Montreal, won from Ted St. Julien, Regina; decision.

135-pound semi-final—Sammy Luftspring, Toronto, won from Billy Humphries, Toronto; decision.

Heavyweight semi-final—Tommy Osborne, Montreal, won from Don Maich, Brantford, on a foul in the third round. Time, 2:19.

147-pound semi-final—Maurice Camry, St. Vital, Man., won from Nick Nickilo, Montreal; decision.

NATIONAL LEAGUE

PITTSBURGH, May 22 (AP).—Darrell (Cy) Blanton ran up a bill for the New York Giants for the second time this season today and bounced back with his second defeat of the year against six victories, 5-2.

The young mound star was beaten, largely because his rival, Roy Parmelee, pitched better ball, but he was by no means disgraced. He added five strikeouts to his record to make it fifty-one, gave nine hits and was accorded weak support.

Parmelee, who has specialized in low-hit games all season, granted the Bucs only five blows and likewise got in trouble on other counts.

FURTHER HONOR FOR LOCAL MAN

J. Gibson, Victoria Rhodes Scholar, Given Royal Society Fellowship

Notification of an unexpected honor has been received by James A. Gibson, Victoria Rhodes scholar, who has been given a fellowship in the Royal Society of Canada, now in session at Hamilton, Ont.

Mr. Gibson is at present in the East, attending the annual conference of the Canadian Institute of International Affairs, and will remain there for some time longer, as he is to be one of the speakers at the annual meeting of the League of Nations Society at Ottawa at the end of May, and will be the Canadian representative at the Dominion Historical Association also present at the meeting at Kingston. At the Ottawa meeting he will give a paper on "The Pacific Question."

The Royal Society fellowship enables the recipient to continue research work at universities in Great Britain, Europe or America, and Mr. Gibson will almost undoubtedly elect to continue his studies in history at Oxford University.

The Royal Society has also given fellowships to Dr. Andrew McKellar, of Vancouver, recently appointed to the Dominion Astrophysical Observatory staff, and to Reginald Salt, of the University of Alberta, for research in zoology.

James Island to Oppose Wests in Postponed Match

Victoria West and James Island, second division football eleven, will clash Saturday afternoon at Heywood Avenue at 3 o'clock in a postponed league fixture, with A. McKinnon as referee. Victory for the greenshirts will give them the championship, but defeat will prolong the season for another couple of weeks.

CULBERTSON on CONTRACT

By Ely Culbertson

World's Champion Player and Greatest Card Analyst

A REAL APPROACH
When partners find strength in their combined hands upon the first round of the auction, there is a need to rush into the final contract. Plenty of time can be used for conveying of information for the purpose of reaching the right contract. This is all important, as many slams are made if properly reached, but may be lost if every available bit of bidding information is not utilized.

A LAYDOWN
Most slam hands should be played in a suit rather than in no trump, in order that tricks may be developed by ruffing. The hand below, however, was played in no trump rather than at six clubs because North was anxious to have the opening lead come up to the strong South hand.

South, dealer.

PLAYHOUSE HAS LIVELY PICTURE

"Young and Beautiful" Features Wampas Baby Stars of 1934—Sparkling Plot

The Wampas Baby Stars of 1934 appearing in "Young and Beautiful," opening today at the Playhouse Theatre, are Hazel Hayes, Judith Allen, Jean Carmen, Lu Anne Meredith, Lenore Keefe, Jean Gale, Dorothy Drake, Neoma Judge, Katherine Williams, Betty Bryson, Ann Hovey and Lucille Lund.

The story, in brief, tells of the romance between Bob Preston, a studio press agent, and June Dale, a Wampas Baby Star. By exerting every high-powered stunt he knows of, Bob plots June to the very heights of movie stardom. June, however, would much rather live a quiet life as a wife and mother, and has no great desire for a screen career.

The more Bob bores June to succeed the further apart they become; Bob delaying the wedding, not because he does not love June, but because he is afraid that knowledge of her marriage will injure her status as a star. Matters are brought to a climax when June turns to a wealthy society playboy and decides to elope with him. This brings Bob to a realization of what it means to lose June, and he plays his last trump and wins her back again.

Human Drama Is At the Columbia

"I've Been Around" Chester Morris' latest starring picture, has been booked for today at the Columbia Theatre.

This Universal picture is one of the most entertaining in which Chester Morris has appeared. It is the story of a girl who loses her head over an adventurer and then marries her unsuspecting fiancé, when she discovers the adventurer

Jane Dixon Says:

LETTERS ASKING ADVICE ON LOVE VARY CONSIDERABLY
Round-up day
So many questions on such a variety of subjects.
I wish I had the wisdom of Solomon.

BAR JACK FOR ALL TIME
Worried: Your experience certainly is a sad one. No one can solve your problem for you. You must find your own solution, and it will require every ounce of strength and wisdom and foresight you possess to find a satisfactory answer. Bringing Jack back from Florida at the end of a long rope might be your solution. It would not be mine. I would bar him for all time from my life and from the lives of those dear to me. He is irresponsible, cowardly and cruel. The sooner you cut yourself off from him entirely, the better will be your chance of retrieving your happiness.

F.M.: My advice to you is to insert in your paper under Lost and Found, a note containing the information you have given me. Describe the dark red coat, the pin showing two small dogs tied together with a chain on the left coat lapel. Tell also where you first saw the girl and under what circumstances. Insert your telephone number, Garfield 0443. I hope you are sure it is of great importance to her.

K.A.H.: I do not understand your request of the bulletin for "Eyes Beautiful." Your note is very vague. I wish I were a mind-reader, because I'd like to help you.

IF HE IS INTERESTED
Correct: If the man is sufficiently interested in you to want to be with you, he will ask you to call. Or he will invite you to share some amusement, a show or a dance or music or whatever he thinks you will enjoy, with him. If you don't, you are likely to slip into a mud puddle, and the mud will be splashed on you. If he likes to stay at home, that is his right. You cannot force his attention any more than you can force his love.

DESOLATE: It is not very becoming to a young lady to wear her heart on her sleeve or to assail reluctant young men with declarations of love. You had better stop fooling your folks and slipping out to meet a man clandestinely. If you don't, you are likely to slip into a mud puddle, and the mud will be splashed on you. If he likes to stay at home, that is his right. You cannot force his attention any more than you can force his love.

PARENTS SHOULD LEAVE DAUGHTER MAKE OWN CHOICE
Peggy: You were absolutely right. You have proven to your folks you want to please them and you have proven to yourself you cannot love the man. It is better to alight your forty-year-old man than it is to cheat him. He should be grateful to you for exercising so much honesty and courage, and you folks should leave their eighteen-year-old girl free to find her real happiness.

LONESOME: If you have been misunderstood, it is your right to explain and to try to correct the misunderstanding. If the boy has not spoken seriously to you, that is a sure sign that he is either not serious or is not ready to make serious declarations. Tell him you are sorry for your failure to clear up the situation when it occurred, and leave the rest to him. If he cares to resume his attention to you, he will do so, but "all the winning" you set out to do will not bring him back.

DECIDE ON DATES OF POLICE SHOOT

Events to Be Held on July 23 and 24 Are Expected to Attract Many Marksmen

The Victoria City Police annual revolver meet will be held July 23 and 24 at the Heals revolver range. It was decided yesterday.

Last year the meet drew some of the finest marksmen on the Pacific Coast, and it is anticipated that all of these will return this year along with several others.

Many events have been listed for this year, consequently the meet will cover two days and not one as in the past.

Details for the shoot were left in the hands of a committee consisting of C. L. Harrison, prosecutor, and coach of the local team; Chief Healey, Detective J. H. Rogers, Inspector J. T. Boulton, Chief H. W. Beckford (Equimait), Sgt. T. Hall, Sgt. James Florence and Detective B. Acreman.

Members of the department are now awaiting results of the finals of the Dominion Chief Constables' Shoot, which was completed here last week, and in which the Victoria team competed with teams from other provinces. Individual scores in the qualifying contest reach the city today.

Detective Rogers, who led the local team, was twelfth highest in the Dominion with a score of 279 for deliberate and rapid fire. The highest was 293, scored by Constable J. R. B. MacDonald, of Ontario. There was only one other score above 290, and the remainder ahead of Detective Rogers scored between 280 and 290. In the finals on Saturday, Detective Rogers dropped three points on his total, and was second to Constable A. H. Phipps, who registered a 279.

Local Boy Member Of Conway's Crew

Boat crews from the training ships Cagway and Worcester will meet on the River Thames on Tuesday, June 4, in what has become an annual event. Victorians will have more than the usual interest in the outcome of the event because John A. Stokes, a native son of this city, is a member of the Conway's crew. Stokes was a former member of the Rainbow Troop, of the Victoria Sea Cadets.

TRACK MEET SET

KELOWNA, May 22 (CP).—Athletes from all parts of British Columbia will meet here May 25 to compete in the interior championship at Kelowna's Empire Day track meet.

In the days of Queen Victoria

EMU Wines were famous in the Old Country in the days of Queen Victoria—and the crinoline.

The EMU Company was established as far back as 1868, a year after Confederation took place in Canada.

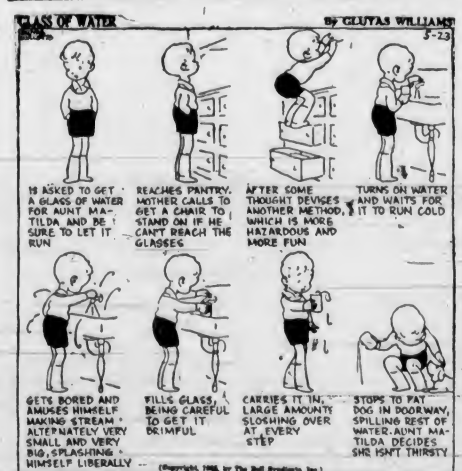

With a tradition of over 65 years and as the largest exporters of wine from Australia, we are unusually particular about the quality of the wines we market.

EMU 444 and EMU 999—White and Tawny Port—are wines of outstanding merit. And being a product of Empire they receive a tariff preference when entering Canada, which explains why they cost you much less than Foreign Port of equal quality.

KRAZY KAT By HerrimanTHE TUTTS . . . By Crawford YoungHow It Started

By JEAN NEWTON

WHY IS IT "CODE?"

"Of the making of codes," says a newspaper commentator, "there is no end."

It is probable that even this critic was unaware of the source of this very much publicized word.

Originally, code was the stock or stem of a tree, represented by the Latin word, codex.

From this portion of the tree there was made a wooden tablet, which, properly prepared and polished with wax, would be used for purposes of inscription, the whole becoming known as a writing or book.

Since so much of the early Roman writings dealt with legal and procedural matters, it was not long before the word code acquired the specialized sense of a body or compilation of laws or a digest of correct conduct. Hence the Justinian Code and the Code Napoleon.

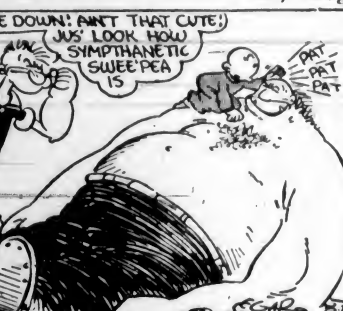

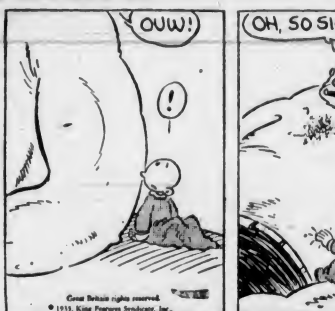

Today, of course, in addition to the multitudinous civil and criminal codes of political divisions and subdivisions the world over, we have codes regulating the working conditions and ethics of practically all industries and professions.

Get rid of the purgative habit at once!

No man or woman should be blamed for trying to get rid of constipation. Incomplete elimination is dangerous. It causes about 90 per cent. of all human ailments.

But those who take drastic purgatives or harsh mineral salts have only themselves to blame if the trouble gets worse instead of better.

For over 60 years Eno's "Fruit Salt" has been relieving constipation, preventing it from becoming chronic, and Eno is safe. A teaspoonful in a glass of water makes a pleasant-tasting, refreshing drink. In a short time Eno will make you feel like a new person—and Eno forms no habit. Handy size, 50 cents. Household size, 85 cents. Phone the druggist now.
